MAIN MEETING

The next meeting of the Chew Valley u3a will be held at Ubley Parish Hall on Monday 17th March when the speaker will be Naomi Johns talking about The modern bird of prey and urban evolution.

Doors open at 10am for coffee & biscuits. Talk begins at 10.30am.

Members: £1. Visitors welcome: £2.50 or £10 for the year. It would be great if members brought their friends and neighbours
Future dates for your diary:
April 17th - More Blue Peter Adventures

We are very sad to announce the passing of Sue Daniels who many of you will remember as organising all our drinks at our main meetings and the trips we enjoyed so much to theatres and around the county. She served on the u3a committee for many years and we send our condolences to her family

Chairs Chat - Thank you for attending the Feb talk about SS Great Britain. Amazing, historic details made so interesting by excellent speaker Ian Caskie.

March Lunch is at the Ring O'Bells, Compton Martin 12.30 Wed.19th.

Tasting Wines and Gourmet Foods

There have been some enquiries about the Wine Tasting Group, which is full. If you would like a second group started, please contact Alan Brooker.

Walking Group

A good walk from Dulcote along the old Strawberry Line to Wells. Coffee stop outside at the Palace, then return alongside the moat and through Palace Fields. We were joined by a couple more for a delicious lunch at The George, Croscombe. Lucky with the weather too. Do join us next month! Contact Sandy. Thank you to Anne Summers for leading us.
